IN RUSSIA

Great Strike Spreads Through Empire

Thousands Join Army of Strikers Thursday

BLOODSHED IS NOW FEARED

Believed the Trouble Has Political Aspect Owing to the Demand for Reforms.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—The strike among the workmen of Russia continues to grow and is rapidly taking on serious proportions. This morning 7,000 working men at the Newa hemp and cord factory joined the strikers. Other laborers are expected to follow and it is believed by the end of the week that the strikers will number 100,000. Railway employees now consider quitting work in sympathy with the strikers. The strikers are now sending emissaries to other cities in an endeavor to make the trouble general throughout the country. Orders have been issued by the czar to the police to deal leniently with the strikers, and not to use force unless necessary. Riots are feared. It is believed that the strike has a political aspect owing to the demands for reforms.

Conditions in Germany.

Essen, Germany, Jan. 19.—The situation in the coal mining districts is becoming more serious daily. The number of strikers officially reported now reaches 185,000, which is more than double the number who quit work in Germany's previous greatest strike, which was the coal miners' strike of 1889. The negotiations of the government commissioners thus far promise nothing favorable. Conferences held proved fruitless. Everything now indicates that the strike will be a long and bitter one. The question is how long the miners can hold out. Next week they will receive the pay for work done in December and part of January. This, with contributions coming in, it is thought, will be sufficient for five weeks at least. Government officials are beginning to admit that the strike will last a long time, and are taking measures accordingly for preventing outbreaks. In some towns the police have ordered that saloons be closed at an earlier hour than usual. Nonunion laborers are joining the unions in great numbers, and the miners evidently are determined to make a hard fight before surrendering.

At the Centrum mine the police and gendarmes were stoned and in self-defense drew their side arms and wounded several of the strikers. At the Graf Bismarck mine two miners going to work were fired at with a pistol and one of them was wounded. The assailant was arrested.

While the Mine Owners' association maintains a haughty and unbending attitude, two of the subordinate mines have acceded to the miners' demands. These are the Rhein-Preussen, owned by Herr Heine, one of the chief coal magnates of Germany, and the King Philip. The employees of both mines have gone to work.

Strike Spreading in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—The strike situation is becoming very grave. There are now 58,000 men out on strike and the movement is spreading to the big cotton mills, which employ over 50,000 operatives. Meetings have been called at which the Socialist Democratic leaders will use their utmost endeavors to convert the strike into a vast political demonstration, which, at the present crisis, might have most serious developments. The authorities are adopting every precaution to avoid an outbreak, but the Socialist Democrats are spurring on the strikers, and there is great danger of a collision with the troops, which would be almost sure to be followed by red-flag demonstrations, accompanied by great bloodshed. The city is full of sensational rumors and rioting is generally expected. The strikers are led by a priest named Gapon, who is idolized by the workmen and who represents them in negotiations with the employers.

The German Strike.

Miners out, 200,000. Cause of strike, changed conditions of employment.

Miners demanded nine hour day and fixed minimum wage.

Last great German strike in 1889—95,000 out.

Negotiations promise no results.

Government prepares for a long siege.

Impending riot at the Centrum mine.

Workers joining the union in large numbers.

The Russian Strike.

On strike 65,000.

Over 50,000 cotton operatives may quit work.

Socialistic meetings called for today.

Industrial quarters of St. Petersburg are armed camps.

All workers vote to support strike.

Government employees involved.

DUKE IS FREE

Police Keeping An Eye on Mrs. Alice Webb Duke.

New York, Jan. 19.—Justice Gaynor this morning decided that Brodie L. Duke is not insane and ordered his release from the sanitarium at Amityville, L. I. Duke is a member of the wealthy tobacco family. He left court with his counsel. Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, whose recent marriage to Duke caused much feeling among members of Duke's family, is under surveillance on information from Texas that a warrant for her arrest will soon be issued there on indictment charging swindling E. A. Blount, president of the Commercial National bank of Nacogdoches, out of $3,900.

Crown Prince Injured.

Berlin, Jan. 19.—Crown Prince Frederick William was thrown from his dog cart today and injured. The prince was driving to Potsdam for a day's sport on the ice. Whether his injuries are serious or not has not yet been ascertained.

NO BIG RUSH

Of Strikers to Return to the Mills

MANY HAVE LEFT THE CITY

Both Sides Regard the Outcome of the Trouble as a Victory.

Fall River, Mass., Jan. 19.—While the textile strike has been declared off, there was no great rush of returning operatives at the mills this morning. One reason for this is that there has been a great exodus of help from the city during the last six months. It is estimated that at least one-third of the labor is now out of the city.

Under the terms of an agreement accepted by both manufacturers and operatives the strikers return to work under the 12 1/2 per cent reduction, against which they struck last July, and with no discrimination because of the strike. No rate of wages was established, but it was agreed that Governor Douglas shall investigate the matter of margins between the cost of cotton to the mill owners and the selling price of the cloth, and submit his conclusions as to an average margin upon which the manufacturers are to pay a dividend of 5 per cent on wages earned from the present time to April 1. Both sides regard the outcome of the deliberations as a victory.

History of the Strike.

Strike began July 25, 1904.

Greatest disturbance ever known to United States textile industry.

25,000 operatives thrown out of work.

85 mills, controlled by 33 corporations, affected.

Cause, 12 1/2 per cent reduction in wages.

Capital of mills affected, $25,000,000.

Number of spindles, 2,300,000.

Weekly loss to operatives, $170,000.

Estimated loss to merchants and business men, $3,000,000.

Five thousand operatives have left Fall River.

No disorder or lawlessness.

Fall River unions contributed $200,000.

Outside contributions amounted to $50,000.

Last big strike in Lowell, 1902, for 12 weeks; 13,000 hands affected.

TWENTY THOUSAND

Amount of Bail That Has Been Fixed For Mrs. Carrie Chadwick—The Woman Is Ill.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Attorney J. P. Dawley appeared before United States Circuit Judge Wing and asked that the amount of bail for the release of Mrs. Carrie L. Chadwick be fixed. There are five indictments against Mrs. Chadwick in the federal court. Judge Wing placed the amount at $20,000. There are, however, three other indictments against her in the Cuyahoga county courts.

Two physicians called to see Mrs. Chadwick in jail. She is said to be suffering from physical and mental collapse. Attorney Dawley says she is afflicted with heart trouble and would not be able to stand a trial in court in her present condition. Mrs. Chadwick is said to have frequent fainting spells. The announcement that Mr. Carnegie had decided to reimburse the losers by the failure of the Oberlin bank has seemed to greatly affect Mrs. Chadwick. Dr. Chadwick admitted to the jail officials that he thought his wife was a very sick woman. He asked to be notified immediately if there should be any dangerous symptoms in her illness.

WILL FIGHT TAMMANY

Hearst Captures Greater New York Democracy.

New York, Jan. 19.—W. R. Hearst has captured the Greater New York Democracy and will use that organization or rather its name, in fighting Tammany Hall in the municipal campaign next fall.

By means of the Greater New York Democracy and his municipal ownership leases Hearst is planning to put an anti-Tammany ticket in the field, with himself possibly at the head of it. The plan is believed to be part of a larger scheme for the reorganization of the National Democracy on Bryan-Hearst ideas.

The preliminary steps will be taken Friday evening when Mr. Hearst will meet a committee of Greater New York Democracy at the Hoffman House.

AGAINST SWAYNE

House Adopts Articles of Impeachment

MATTER NOW IN THE SENATE

Florida Federal Judge Must Now Face Charge in the United States Senate.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The 12 articles of impeachment against Judge Charles Swayne of the northern district of Florida were adopted by the house of representatives. The articles had been presented by the special committee of investigation. The speaker was authorized to appoint seven members to present the case to the senate and conduct the impeachment proceedings before that body. This action was the culmination of a debate which has been in progress for over a week, and which has developed partisan feeling and personal vituperation. The first vote, that to table the first three articles, those relating to the falsification of expenses, went against Judge Swayne by the narrow margin of five votes. This was regarded as the test vote, as the change regarding expenses was the only one concurred in by the members of the committee signing the minority report. The motion to table these articles was lost—160 to 165. On rollcall these three articles were adopted. Articles 4 and 5, relating to the free use of a private car by Judge Swayne, were made the subject of a separate vote, and adopted. Like action followed with regard to Articles 6 and 7, charging him with nonresidence in his district. This was the last rollcall, as Articles 8, 9, 10 and 11, relating to the Davis-Belden contempt case, and Article 12, relating to the O'Neal contempt case, were declared adopted on viva voce votes.

INSANE WOMAN

Killed Two and Injured Others in Trying to Make Escape.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 19.—(Bulletin)—In an attempt to escape from the state hospital here, Mignonette Seavey, suffering from dementia, killed Mrs. Isabel Merrill and Opelia Cossette, patients, and severely injured Josephine Howard, a patient, and Miss Fliske, a nurse. The killing was done with a towel roller, which the patient secured from the toilet room. The nurse was first confronted by the woman, who demanded the keys. The woman aimed a blow at the nurse which was parried, but the weapon extinguished the light, leaving the ward in darkness. After a terrific struggle the nurse overpowered the maniac and forced her to the door and summoned help. After the Seavey woman had been removed to the violent ward a search of the ward revealed her deadly work. The body of Mrs. Merrill was found on the floor while that of the Cossette woman was lying across the bed. Mrs. Howard was unconscious.

PANAMA CANAL

Why Work on the Ditch is Being Held Up—The Proper Levels Not Established.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Many cartoonists sharpened their pencils and drew pictures of Uncle Sam with shovel and spade standing by a small ditch, with the two oceans on each side and with this instruction—"Now dig the canal." These cartoons appeared about the time the United States acquired the canal zone from Panama, with the rights of the French company. But the work has not been done and whether it should be a sea level or a canal with locks and dams it is reasonably certain that the Panama dam is impracticable and that the food of the Isthmus river will be very dangerous. After years of examination, engineering and construction the work has begun all over again.

Mikado Sends Message.

Tokyo, Jan. 19.—The Mikado will tomorrow send a message to the United States president. He will send to the soldiers' clubs in cities bearing the imperial crest.

KERENS CLAIMS

He Has Votes to Defeat Mr. Niedringhaus.

LATTER HOWEVER CONFIDENT

Says Trouble Will End When the Recalcitrant Members Hear the Truth.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 19.—Richard C. Kerens has opened up headquarters here and has a corps of men working for him. Mr. Kerens made the following statement: "I am here for the express purpose of defeating Niedringhaus. I have the votes with which to do it and I am going to stick to my purpose. I had no intention of continuing the fight up to last Sunday, but developments since then have made me determined. I have not been treated right. Do not ask me to withdraw my fight. It is impossible. I am going to beat Niedringhaus, and I can do it."

The bolt of eight Republicans prevented the election of Thomas Niedringhaus, caucus nominee, at the first joint session of the legislature. With the exception of one, who cast his ballot for Dr. Pettijohn of Linn county, all the bolters voted for Richard C. Kerens of St. Louis, who was the strongest opponent of Niedringhaus in the caucus. The final ballot resulted as follows: Niedringhaus, 83; Cockrell, 83; Kerens, 7; Pettijohn, 1. On the first ballot Niedringhaus received 87 votes, two less than necessary for election; Cockrell received 83 and Kerens 6. The defeat of Mr. Niedringhaus was predicted following a conference of the Kerens men with their leader just before the meeting of the joint session.

Mr. Niedringhaus, in speaking of the situation, said: "Yes, I was surprised at the action of some of the Republicans. I can not understand why the representatives in the Republican party should allow themselves to be duped. When they understand the true conditions I am confident that the trouble will be ended."

After the joint session adjourned the Republican members of the legislature held a conference. Representative Bittinger was the only one of the men who bolted Niedringhaus who attended. He took no part in the conference beyond listening to the discussion of the situation. A telegram from Major William Warner of Kansas City was read in which Major Warner stated that he would accept no office that might come to him through treachery. Some members were inclined to take this telegram as indicating that he would not accept the senatorial preferment if a bolt was made in his favor and consummated. The conference selected a committee to see that all members were present at the next joint session and to arrange for pairs with Democrats if any members were absolutely unable to be on hand. Further than this nothing was accomplished.

At the same time the Democratic members of the house held a caucus and discussed plans for reorganizing the house and deposing Speaker Hill. No definite conclusions were reached. It is current, however, that should they attempt this they will join with the Kerens Republicans in electing Dr. Pettijohn for speaker.

THOS. COCKRILL

Undertakes a Dangerous Mission in Kentucky—Goes to Arrest Important Witness.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 19.—Thomas Cockrill, the surviving leader of the Cockrill faction of Breathitt county and brother of James Cockrill, for whose murder Curtis Jett is under death sentence and William Britton is now on trial here, left for the feud-ridden community on a dangerous mission. He was sworn in as special bailiff to go to the interior of Breathitt county and arrest an important witness for the state who has ignored summons and is said to be guarded by friends.

MORMONS

Strong in Idaho and Render Help to Defeat Smoot—They Fight Senator Dubois.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Some times it appears that the investigation of Senator Smoot's title to a seat in the Senate is simply an investigation of the political campaign in Idaho. This is because Senator Dubois, who is a member of the committee, is leading the fight against the Mormons and is making it the basis of his future political career. Dubois says very frankly that he will be beaten next year, as the movement against the Mormons will not be strong enough by that time to be successful. He hopes that the time is coming when the anti-Mormons will unite, and then he will be at the head of a victorious party. In "trying out" the Idaho case politicians of all kinds were brought to Washington and gave their testimony. Members of the committee say they will sweep aside all the Idaho testimony when they consider the case of Senator Smoot on its merits. But the mass of matter entangled in the records will no doubt be used in future Idaho campaigns.

SHOT AT CZAR

But Bullet Missed Him and Entered a Window of the Imperial Palace Thursday.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—What is believed to have been an attempt to assassinate the czar occurred this afternoon. He was returning from the ceremony of blessing of the river Neva when a shot was fired from the crowd which lined the czar's route. It is presumed that the bullet was intended for the emperor. The shot entered a window at the corner of the palace. The czar was not injured.

IN A FIGHT

Over Score Hurt and Three of Them Will Die.

Vienna, Jan. 19.—The Hungarian election developed a terrible fight between the opposition faction and the liberals at Heves. The opposition attacked the liberals with bludgeons. Twenty-eight persons were seriously injured. Fifteen sustained stab wounds, many had cars torn off, while others were a mass of bruises, cuts and bites. Three victims will die.

TOM LAWSON MUST TELL WHY.

"FRENZIED FINANCE" LAWSON AND THE STOCK MARKET FLURRIES.

Tom W. Lawson of Boston and "Frenzied Finance" purchase of the London Petroleum Co. Ltd. which did not defend the American stock market, is generally regarded as one of the most daring operators in the United States. He was one of the first to buy up the stock of the American Petroleum Co. which he has recently been assailing as a monopoly.

Boston, Jan. 19.—The purchase of the stock of the Boston Gas company, has issued a command for Tom W. Lawson to appear Jan. 21 and show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court. Lawson says his former partner for contempt in the American Petroleum Co. case has been taken to court. Now it's a partial property interest in the company.

IN A FOG

Three Trains Collided in England

Six People Killed and 27 Were Badly Hurt

MEN UNDER BURNING CARS

And it Was Only With Greatest Difficulty They Were Saved from Awful Death.

London, Jan. 19.—One of the worst disasters in the history of the Midland railway occurred this morning at Cudworth, near Barnsley, England, when three trains collided, killing six persons and seriously injuring 27 others.

Among the hurt is artist, Robert Brown.

It is reported that the train caught fire immediately after the collision. The injured were pinned under the burning cars, and it was only with the greatest difficulty that a score were saved from a horrible death in the flames. The collision occurred during a fog.

The Scotch express bound north, failed to see the Leeds mail in front and ran into it. The shock threw the mail train off the track. Before signals could be put out the Scotch express bound south crashed into the wreckage. Two special trains with doctors on board, were promptly sent to the scene and the wounded were attended to.

KING OSCAR

Dangerously Ill From Facial Paralysis Says Copenhagen Dispatch.

London, Jan. 19.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Copenhagen today states that advices from Stockholm say that King Oscar is dangerously ill from facial paralysis.

Mr. Camberlain says there are 1,000,000 fewer farm laborers in England now than in 1851, and 13,000,000 laborers are unfitted.

THE CHARGE AGAINST SECRETARY PAUL MORTON.

Paul Morton, secretary of the navy, has been the recent object of attack in newspapers and in congress because of the allegation that while a vice president of the Santa Fe system he made certain rebates to favored shippers in violation of the law. The revelation is said to have been made during the inquiry into the subject by the interstate commerce commission.

Best Known Remedy for Coughs and Colds.

I had a severe cough and cold which settled on my lungs and I tried various kinds of cough remedies, none of which did any good until I finally tried one bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. I have recovered me at once. Please accept my thanks for this most valuable remedy. Very truly, Henry Frank, 270 Julia St., Little Rock, Ark.

Cure When All Else Fails.

I had a severe cough and cold. I tried many remedies but none of them seemed to do me any good, and as last I tried one bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and I cured in a very short time. My name is William C. Smith, 112 E. St. Catharines, Ont., Canada.

OVER 3,000,000 BOTTLES OF

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

Were sold during the year 1904, on an absolute guarantee. Out of this vast number of sales money was returned on only five bottles, making a record of successful cures of every 333,333. This is the most successful record of any medicine ever sold.

Last Saturday evening Messrs. and Mesdames J. F. Harris, Isaac Finkbone, Thurman Finkbone, Byron Brothers, John Tunison, Arthur Taggart, Frank Roshon, Charles N. Wells, William H. Larimore, S. Buckland, H. H. Simmons, and Joseph and Arthur Roshon, all masked, took the 6:45 car for Mrs. Ella Smith's home, two miles east of Reynoldsburg.

When they arrived there they found awaiting them Messrs. C. M. Winegarner, Albert Winegarner, Guy Winegarner, Fred McCherry, William Winegarner, Robert Taylor and wives, Misses Bertha, Dessie and Clement Taylor, who were also masked. It was a great surprise to Mrs. Smith, some 35 people coming all masked, and some of the most ridiculous looking objects you ever saw. Most all tribes and nations were represented. They kept their masks on for nearly an hour, when all took them off. It was a grand success. Games, fudge, oysters, etc., were indulged in until the midnight car came along to take the jolly crowd home. Many people gathered at the home of Mr. Larimore when they started on their journey to see the make up of the people. The conductor looked surprised when they began getting on the car and asked where in the D— did they come from, and where were they going.

There will be a lecture at Reynoldsburg next Saturday. Some thirty have been attending the lectures in the course there from this place this winter.

NO QUESTION ABOUT IT.
Pepsikola Must Cure Indigestion Or It Is Free.

Wiles, Erman Drug company continue to sell Newark people with the understanding it positively must cure dyspepsia and indigestion or it will not cost a penny.

Experience has proven that Pepsikola cures dyspepsia in forty-nine cases out of fifty. That is a remarkable statement, considering how difficult it is to cure dyspepsia, but the facts in the case can be easily verified.

There is every reason to have confidence, for Wiles, Erman Drug company will hand back your money without the least hesitation should you fail to be benefited and cured.

You will see a marked improvement right away. All kinds of food can be eaten freely—it is more easily digested—there is no fullness or distress after eating—and by aiding the stomach to assimilate and digest, Pepsikola makes more red, rich blood to strengthen the body.

As a nerve tonic, nothing in the world will do you so much good as Pepsikola. It is just the thing for those who feel run down, nervous, tired and worn out and need something to give them new life and new energy. Don't hesitate a minute but go right to Wiles, Erman Drug company and try it on their recommendation and guarantee, for Pepsikola must help and cure you or the cost is nothing. 1-2111

WEHRLE COMPANY

NOW SINKING GAS WELL NO. 2
WEST OF NEWARK.

Car Load of Patterns and Machinery for New Safe Factory Arrives.
Work Begins Soon.

The Wehrle company has begun the work of sinking a second gas well west of the city, about 1000 feet from the first one, which is a big success. The second well it is expected, will be just as productive. As before stated, the big foundry is now being operated with its own fuel gas. A carload of patterns and implements has arrived at the Wehrle company's plant, and as soon as the building is completed the work of manufacturing safes will commence. This will be in the very near future.

GAS TURNED ON

The controversy between the city and the Newark Gas Light and Coke company has been adjusted. Gas was turned into the municipal electric light plant Wednesday night.

PRETTY WEDDING

That of Miss Mabel Whitecamp and Mr. George Lessler in Newark Wednesday Evening.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Mabel Whitecamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whitecamp, to Mr. George Lessler, a popular employee of the Jewett Car Company. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home, 492 West Main street, at six o'clock Wednesday evening, by Rev. L. C. Sparks, only a few friends being present.

The bride was handsomely gowned and was attended by Misses Kittie Suter, Myrtle Snider and Vida Shauk.

After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Lessler left for a short visit to Chicago and will upon their return make their home with the bride's parents for a time.

Mrs. C. C. Miller, wife of Superintendent of the Lima public schools, an aunt of the bride, attended the wedding, being the only guest from out of the city.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE RATES RAISED.

Why should it be a surprise to you that the rates of that particular assessment organization of which you are a member, should be raised? It is simply the history of all such organizations. We supposed you were aware of this, and were expecting it. With the laws of mortality, which are as certain as the laws of gravity, it can never be otherwise. Besides having to die to win (providing the company survives) and with no fixed rate, with nothing saved for old age, you subscribe, when joining any assessment company, to any changes necessary in rules and regulations. With no membership fee, no medical examination, no annual dues to pay for, the Equitable Life will give you a rate for 10, 15 or 20 years, and return you your money with interest at the end of the period. Insure with the strongest company in the world.

Hollenbeck's Denial.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 19.—Postmaster A. F. Hollenbeck of West Plains, Mo., testified before the senate investigating committee and denied that he had had any conversation with Representative Cook of Howell county regarding Cook's vote on United States senator in behalf of Niedringhaus, excepting that he had told Cook that petitions were being circulated in Howell county asking that Cook vote against R. C. Kerens. Hollenbeck declared that the statement said to have been made by Cook in giving testimony, that Hollenbeck had approached him with an offer to purchase his vote, was totally untrue.

Four Women Rescued.

Portsmouth, O., Jan. 19.—While skating on the Ohio river Miss Beulah Manuel, Miss Bessie Thompson, Miss Carrie Haquard and Mrs. Clark, all from Sciotoville, broke through and had miraculous escapes from being drowned. A crowd of boys formed into a human chain and rescued the party. Mrs. Clark and Miss Haquard were resuscitated with great difficulty, and are still in a critical condition.

LAHUE

SHOT THREE TIMES AT JOE CALDWELL TODAY.

Excitement at B. & O. Shops and Poor Marksmanship Alone Prevented Probable Murder.

The B. & O. machine shop was a scene of wild excitement about 1 o'clock p. m., Thursday, the cause being the firing of three shots in rapid succession by one man at another.

The gun-user is Frank Lahue, a machine helper, who was soon afterward arrested and locked up by Officer Pat Carroll, while the intended victim was Joseph D. Caldwell, formerly a boiler-makers' helper of Newark, afterward the same at Pittsburgh, and since Christmas a resident of Newark, boarding at Shed Berkshire's in East Newark.

Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock Caldwell went to Mayor Crilly's office and filed an affidavit against Lahue, charging him with shooting at him (Caldwell) with intent to kill.

The man was still excited from his experience but told an Advocate reporter the following story of the shooting:

"Lahue has been living with my wife for a long time, at 39 1/2 Baltimore street, but at no time have I ever gone near them or had anything to do with them. Thursday afternoon I was walking west along the canal bank and saw Lahue crossing the bridge going to work, some distance west of me. My wife yelled at him: 'Look out, Frank, that fellow (meaning me) will kill you.'

Lahue replied 'If he — bothers me, I'll put a bullet into him' at the same time turning to me and applying another vile epithet.

"Lahue then went into the shops, and I followed him. As soon as we got inside the machine shop without a word, Lahue pulled a revolver and quicker than I can tell you fired three shots at me, at close range one of them going between my arm and body, while the others also came so close that I could hear them whistle."

Lahue will probably have a preliminary hearing on Friday morning before Mayor Crilly.

Disraeli.
A conspicuous example of the changes in opinion concerning men and races of men was recently furnished when all Britain united to do honor to Benjamin Disraeli, earl of Beaconsfield, on the one hundredth anniversary of his birth.

For many centuries the race from which sprang this splendid exponent of its abilities and capacities was proscribed in England. Secretly admitted in the time of Cromwell, the Jews were, almost until times within the memory of living men, despised and alien outcasts even in the only land that offered them toleration. From this "peculiar people" came Disraeli, who with no other aid than that of education and native ability against the well high overwhelming prejudices of family, caste and wealth fought his way step by step from the position of a pamphleteer and hustings orator to that of the highest statesman of the realm. When, after manifold struggles, Disraeli won a seat in the house of commons, that body jeered at him, at his clothes, at his mannerisms. "They shall yet hear me!" said the young politician. His claim was modest, for before the close of his long and active political career Parliament and the British public were not only glad to hear him, but to hear him with eager, respectful attention.

It is said that Disraeli—the title of Earl of Beaconsfield was accepted only to please his wife—was the favorite prime minister of Queen Victoria. It is certain that none of the many other premiers of her long reign is more highly honored today by Britons, and Primrose day, April 19, the anniversary of Beaconsfield's death, is a holiday devoted to the eulogy of his memory.

Although Disraeli was a member of the Church of England and was married to a Christian, he prided himself on his Jewish ancestry and origin. That he—a descendant of a race but newly domiciled in Great Britain, the victims of unthinking popular prejudice—rose to the very summit of fame and popularity was ever to him a source of the most intense gratification.

A Jap's View of the Row in the East.
A short and clear statement of the causes which brought on the war in the east is given in Dr. K. Asakawa's recent book, "The Russo-Japanese Conflict." The author graduated at Dartmouth in 1890 and is now in the faculty of that institution.

Dr. Asakawa's work is based upon both private and official documents and shows an endless train of intrigue, duplicity and prevarication on the part of Russia not alone in dealing with Japan, but in her explanations and answers to other powers. And yet it is not clear from these documents that Russia had any settled, preconceived policy in the east. The czar, his ministers and advisers, likewise Viceroy Alexieff, all talked different ways at different times. It is evident, however, that Russia meant to keep Manchuria from China once she had planted her troops in that territory. Russia's lack of a definite policy of her own accounts in part for her blunders in meeting the emergency which Japan forced upon her.

Tesla, the great, is going to speed ships in the south Pacific ocean and turn factory plants in the Andes with electric power generated at Niagara Falls. Meanwhile the average man with no ships and no factories to worry about will go on circulating the hand about mill, agitating the bucksaw and shouting, "Whoa, haw, gee!" to the patient motor already in hand and worth two of Tesla's in the bush.

The "national board for the promotion of rifle practice" naively asks congress to appropriate $1,000,000 a year to teach young men to shoot straight as a means of national defense. But it should not be overlooked that record making at a still target is quite a different affair from scoring on a target that has the draw on a fellow and is a record shooter too.

WASHINGTON NEWS

Who Would be President.
Washington, Jan. 19.—The House Committee on Election of President, Vice President and Representatives in Congress favorably reported the bill introduced by Representative Clark (Missouri) adding the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to the line of Presidential succession.

In reporting this measure the committee asks some questions to point out what it regards as inadequacies in the existing law demanding the early attention of Congress. The query is made as to who would determine the question of "Inability" of the President and who would succeed in the event of the death of the President-elect before taking office, and if in the event of the death of the President-elect and the Vice President-elect before taking their offices would the members of the cabinet appointed by the outgoing President succeed in the order named by law.

It also is asked whether in the event the Democratic candidates for President and Vice President had been elected at the last election and had died before new cabinet officers had been confirmed, the Republican cabinet members would be in line of succession. The present law, it is stated, was adopted as an emergency measure.

Smoot Hearing.
Washington, Jan. 19.—Professor James E. Talmage of the Utah State university, and author of some of the doctrines accepted as authoritative teachings of the Mormon church, was on the stand in the Smoot investigation before the senate committee on privileges and elections. He gave an interesting account of the church organization and the church courts, and proved to be well informed on nearly every subject of church policy.

Minister For Foreign Affairs.
Washington, Jan. 19.—News has been received here that President Castro has appointed General Alexander Ibarre to be minister for foreign affairs of Venezuela. He succeeds Senor Sanavarr, who, it is understood, was displaced because of his advocacy of the settlement of the claims of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company by arbitration. General Ibarre is a nephew of the late Dictator Guzman Blanco, and married Miss Russell of Boston, daughter of a former American minister to Venezuela, who was one of the diplomatic body expelled from Caracas by Blanco. Since the return of Mr. Bowen, American minister to Caracas, to his post, the state department is renewing its efforts to secure the reference to arbitration of the asphalt case, to which President Castro thus far has been opposed. If these efforts fail the department will be obliged to take other means to secure a settlement.

Discussed Beef Trust.
Washington, Jan. 19.—Attorney General Moody and Solomon H. Betha, United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois, were in conference with President Roosevelt for some time. It is presumed that some phases of the beef trust question were under consideration, as Mr. Betha has figured as the government's representative in the Chicago federal courts in the steps heretofore taken against the beef trust. The United States supreme court now has under consideration the appeal of the packers from Judge Grosscup's injunction against them, and the conference may have been held with a view of determining in advance what action shall be taken in the event that the government's contention is upheld by the court.

Spoiled Her Beauty.
Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had salt rheum or eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Hall's drug store.

Foster & Teaff have removed their plumbing shop to 49 West Main street, to larger quarters where they will be better able to display their stock, and would be pleased to meet all their old customers as well as new ones. 16-6t

Posse After Them.
Shreveport, La., Jan. 19.—Posses are searching the woods near Mira, in this parish, for a negro named John Bird and an unknown companion, who have shot and fatally wounded Ellwood McKelvey and seriously wounded Norman Marten, white farmers, who, it is alleged, constituted a part of a band of regulators who visited Bird's house for the purpose of whipping him. When the men knocked at the negro's door it was opened and two shotguns were thrust into their faces and fired. Both of McKelvey's eyes were shot out and he was left where he fell for three hours, his companions being afraid to venture within range of the cabin again. The negroes made good their escape.

Socialists Fired On.
Lemberg, Austria, Jan. 19.—Reports received here from Lemberg, European Russia, Jan. 14 to quell a Social Democratic demonstration and fired several volleys into the crowds, with the result that many persons were killed or wounded. Among the killed was a workman who had headed a procession carrying a red flag.

RAILWAY RUMBLES

BRAKEMAN CLEMENTS INJURED AT BARNESVILLE.

B. & O. Checks Didn't Come Thursday Morning—Local and General Railway News.

C. G. Clements, a well known B. & O. passenger brakeman, running out of this city, met with an accident Thursday morning, by which he sustained painful injuries. As passenger train No. 18 was passing Barnesville, on the C. O. division of the road, he was standing on a step of one of the cars when it struck a pile of frozen dirt, twisting the step, and throwing him from the train. He was quite painfully injured, being bruised about the side and on one of the legs, besides being cut on the eye and nose. The injured man was left at Barnesville.

Fruitless Conference.
Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—After a protracted conference, General Manager W. W. Atterbury of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the board of adjustment of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen separated without having reached an agreement. W. G. Lee, first vice grand master of the brotherhood, who represents the grand lodge and is acting in conjunction with the board, informed Mr. Atterbury that he regarded any further conferences useless. He then called a meeting of the board of adjustment, and it is expected final action will be taken regarding the differences between the company and the trainmen.

Located in Cincinnati.
Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 19.—Richard Edmund Grieve, chief bookkeeper for the Wabash railroad in this city, disappeared in September last and was charged by the company with the embezzlement of $2,690. A reward was offered for his apprehension, and he was brought from Cincinnati, where he had located, and lodged in jail.

Railway Personals.
Engine 875 which has been in the shops for repairs has been turned out for service.

Brakeman H. L. Zellner, E. E. Nichols, B. Hughes, Beatty and C. E. Rian are all off on leave of absence.

Engines 2241 and 2243 which were transferred from the Wheeling division to the Newark division, have been returned.

Conductor C. V. Gallagher after a short absence has been marked up for service.

Conductor W. A. Savoy has returned to work.

Brakeman E. G. Pocock has been marked up for service on the C. O. division.

For some inexplicable reason the B. O. checks failed to arrive here on No. 7 this morning.

Engine 1916 has been shopped for a new tire.

Jack Wooley, the faithful B. & O. caller who fell on the ice on South Second street a few days ago, badly injuring himself, wishes to return thanks to railroad friends and others for their kindness during the time he was confined to his home on account of the accident.

Firemen Hammond, Hardisty, Dush, Dutcher and C. A. Harrington are all off for a short rest.

Engine 2243 has been transferred from the Wheeling to the Newark division.

A Grim Tragedy
is daily enacted in thousands of homes as death claims in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. "THE SIMPLE LIFE"

ANOTHER CHAPTER.

We have moved our real estate office to 33 West Main street, in the room formerly occupied by Showman Bros. and D. L. White as a grocery. In connection with our real estate and building, we have added the plumbing business, to be known as the "Newark Plumbing and Supply House."

We have been very careful to secure a competent and reliable man, one who understands sanitary plumbing thoroughly. We are able to do all kinds of plumbing promptly.

There is nothing that affords more pleasure or comfort in any home than good plumbing; while on the other hand there is no greater menace to health, nothing as expensive or annoying as poor plumbing.

Newark is certainly behind the times when it comes to sanitary conditions. We claim that the best is none too good, and we are firm believers that if a thing is worth doing at all, it should be done right and at the proper time.

We wish to say to our friends that your patronage will be appreciated, and we will give you good and prompt service.

MARRIED

To a Convicted Murderer Thirty Minutes After His Sentence—Indiana Girls Romance.

Dixie, Ill., Jan. 19.—Thirty minutes after John Donovan had been sentenced to serve 34 years in the penitentiary for murder, he married Mary Clifford, a pretty girl from South Bend, Ind. She has haunted the court room and declared her intention to marry Donovan at the first opportunity. There being no objection from her parents the ceremony was performed in the court room directly after the crowd had been cleared out.

Donovan, a Chicago hold up man, was convicted of the murder of Geo. Gaynen, whom he slew while resisting robbery. After the marriage Donovan was led away to begin his sentence.

The bride says she will find employment in Joliet to be near him, and will wait patiently to welcome him after his 30 years' confinement.

Organ Recital.

Just one week from tomorrow, Dr. Minor C. Baldwin of New York will give an organ recital at the St. Paul Lutheran church. The New York Musical Courier said of Dr. Baldwin: "World's Fair music has reached its zenith in the events of the past week, which have included the star attractions of the season. Minor C. Baldwin of New York, electrified his audience with a most spirited performance, his opening number, 'The Toccata of Bach,' was played with a firmness and spirit that aroused the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm, which was maintained throughout."

Love's Last Request.

PROUD maiden, I ask no returning
Of such little gifts as I sent;
The letters are little for burning.
Not meaning the thing that they meant.

The gloves and the scent and the brooches,
The sweetmeats, the small vinaigrette,
I leave with unuttered reproaches
For you to recall or forget.

There's a pouch that you broided and brought home,
If you wish I'll return it to you.
And a box of cigars that you bought me—
I only could tackle a few.

The weeds I will gladly surrender—
They'll do for some other sad swain—
But the poems I sent you, the tender,
Sweet sonnets—I want them again.

You remember the ode true and simple
Addressed to your firm little nose?
And the sonnet induced by a dimple
And the rondau I sent with a rose?

You remember the dainty effusion
That said I would die at your feet?
It may have been all a delusion,
But I think the expression was neat.

I haven't a copy, and therefore
I hope you will kindly restore
These things you no longer will care for.
Because I may use them once more.

I soon may again be affected
To utter emotions in rhyme.
And really I can't be expected
To pen a new poem each time.

NEWS OF THE STATE AND NEIGHBORHOOD

GRANVILLE NEWS

OLD COLLEGE "GYM" IS NOW BEING DISMANTLED.

Historic Graveyard—New Gymnasium. Denison Men Who Have Become Prominent.

Granville, O., Jan. 19.—Of the many successful men that may be mentioned as having been students at Denison University in the seventy odd years of her existence we mention a few as follows:

Dr. William Ashmore, the great missionary to China.

Dr. John Kerr, the great missionary physician to China.

Dr. Sampson Talbot, former president of Denison University.

Dr. W. P. Kerr, late president of Granville Female College.

Rev. Lewis F. Hicks, missionary to India.

Hon. Judson Harmon, ex-United States Attorney General.

Hon. H. J. Booth, State President of the Ohio Bar Association.

Hon. T. J. Keating, a leading member of the Columbus bar.

Hon. Howard Ferris, Judge of the Supreme court at Cincinnati.

Judge A. B. Brown of Dayton.

Judge B. F. McCann of Dayton, O.

Hon. Torrence Huffman of Cincinnati.

Harvey Keeler, prosecuting attorney of Cuyahoga county, O.

Prof. Ira Price, of University of Chicago.

Prof. Ernest Burton of University of Chicago.

Prof. F. W. Shephardson, of University of Chicago.

Prof. J. W. Moncrief, of University of Chicago.

The above are only a few of the hundreds of former students of old Denison who have achieved greatness in the battle of life.

FIRST COLLEGE BUILDING.

It seems almost a desecration to the Granville students of a generation ago to see the old frame college building that has stood on the hill for so many years, become a thing of the past. Mr. Edward Tight has purchased the building and already has commenced the work of dismantling it. We refer to the original college building of Granville College that once stood on the hills, three miles southwest of Granville, and was afterwards taken down and removed, piece by piece, to where it has for so long a time stood on College Hill. This venerable old building was for many years the only Granville College building, and has been sacred for its many historical associations. In it the Pratts and Baileys presided as presidents, and in it the Ashmores, the Talbots and the Kerrs of early days were educated, and its very walls seem sacred to the memories of the great and good men, who have come forth from there to battle for God and humanity in the world.

HISTORIC GRAVE YARD.

Many citizens of Granville are not aware what a rich field for the historian and biographer lies almost unexplored in their very midst in the old graveyard near the T. & O. C. R. R. station. This old time cemetery is probably one hundred years old, and contains the remains of many of the first settlers of Granville, Mass., who came to this country when it was a wilderness, and established the present classic village of Granville in the virgin forest. Many old-fashioned grave stones, made out of free stone, and carved with quaint and ancient inscriptions some of them leaning at

THE NEW GYMNASIUM.

The new combination Y. M. C. A. and gymnasium building for Denison University is practically completed. Students have been ordered to get their gymnasium costumes ready, and it is expected that regular instruction in gymnastics will begin in the near future.

George Carter had the misfortune to meet with a very painful accident on Monday. He was standing on a ladder when he fell, the ladder falling on him, badly injuring his ankle. Dr. Follett attended the injury.

Wither Ransom is in Chicago on business.

Columbus, Jan. 19.—Dr. W. E. Clemens, of Granville, president; Professor S. Sessions of O. S. U., vice president; W. H. Crubb of Washington C. H., secretary; T. F. Hillock of Columbus, treasurer, were the officers elected by the Ohio State Veterinary Association.

Before the election of officers the association was addressed by Dr. J. J. McPhillips of the Ohio State University on "Post-mortem Diagnosis of Rabies." He said that rabies are very common in Ohio and are becoming more common as shown by the latest veterinarian's report. In the last five years more cases were treated from Ohio at the Pasteur Institute in Chicago than from any other state. The day was finished with a banquet at the Great Southern hotel. Dr. D. S. White the retiring president, officiated as president.

RECTOR BOPE

RESTED AND READY FOR FIGHT AGAINST GIBBS.

Names of the Ten Witnesses Who Have Been Summoned to Appear at Trial Friday.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 19.—The Rev. F. V. Bope, plaintiff in the $20,000 slander suit against W. A. Gibbs the street car man, set for tomorrow, says:

"I have no statement to make in addition to what has been already said by my attorneys. I went away from Zanesville to escape rumors, letters, newspaper reporters and telephone inquiries. The wisdom of my course is justified by the fact that I found at Lancaster and on my return to my office a bundle of over a hundred pieces of mail matter, the attendance upon which would have been a severe mental and physical strain in my then condition of health. I feel much better in consequence of my rest, and shall be in the fight to the finish."

So far only ten witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear. These are Joseph R. Downs, T. J. Frazier, C. T. DeVelling and wife, Mrs. Carolyn DeVelling-Morris, and J. R. Alexander, for the Bope side and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Worstall, and Mrs. May Jones, for the Gibbs side.

It had been the intention to subpoena a large number of witnesses, by the Bope people, but this was rendered unnecessary by the defendant, Mr. Gibbs, admitting many things in his answers, such as the popular standing of Mr. Bope.

OHIO BOY

A Six-Footer, Strong and as Straight as an Arrow, Admits That He is Crooked.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 19.—Jerome Cusick, of Marion, O., 18 years of age, was committed to jail on four separate charges of burglary and one of larceny. The police believe that they will be able to make other charges against him before he is brought up for trial.

Young Cusick is a six footer and, as straight as an arrow. The police say that he does not look at all like a burglar. He was caught in the act of burglarizing offices in the Porter building, 224 St. Paul street, and had no denials to make when arraigned before Justice Grauman at the Central police station.

He was a game youngster and said he was ready to "take his medicine." He admitted the larceny charge against him.

When arrested the young man had with him a fine new revolver, also said to have been stolen, and several bunches of keys.

FIRST OHIO WOMAN

Sent to the Ohio Penitentiary for Neglecting Her Children.

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—The first Ohio woman to be convicted for failing to support her children is Emma Fullerton. She was convicted in Hancock county and sentenced to serve one year. The officers made every effort to have her do her duty, and, failing, had her convicted. She was received at the penitentiary yesterday.

Kenyon's Ball Team.

Thursday's Cincinnati Commercial Tribune has the following to say of Kenyon's basketball team of which Carl Weiant of Newark is manager:

"The Kenyon college basketball team from Gambier, O., will unpack a new assortment of tricks and signals all set to bombard the Y. M. C. A. Gym tonight, where it is scheduled to meet the Christians in a game that promises to be one of the best of the season. No team in the state has been putting up as great an article of ball in the cage arena as has the Gambier five, they having met and defeated many of the strongest colleges in Ohio, and their game with the Y. M. C. A. tonight will, therefore, be a watching as they come ready to wipe out the stain of defeat administered by the warriors of the old gold and blue last season. All the old stars will be in line including Boags, their giant centerman, whose playing has always been a feature of the games in which he has played. A big crowd of Kenyon motorists will be on hand to help cheer their favorites on to victory, while the varsity is also expected to be in line to battle up a few of Kenyon's plans for Friday noon at the Y. C. Gym. The game tonight will be called at 8 o'clock sharp.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Newark, and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering. Days of misery, nights of unrest. The distress of urinary troubles. She finds relief and cure? No reason why any Newark reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Mary E. Manville, of 24 South 4th St., Newark, N. J., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best thing I know of for rheumatic troubles. I got more relief out of one box than from all the other remedies I have ever used. I had suffered a great deal from rheumatism in my loins and back. It caught me first in one place and then in another, but was always present somewhere. Nothing seemed to give any relief until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. Apparently they gave all the rheumatism out of my system for I have never had a return of the trouble and that was over five years ago. My husband has also used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

MRS. CASSIE L. CHADWICK.

The Strange Woman Who Has Made a Record in "Frozen Finance."

The character of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, female exponent of "frenzied finance," has puzzled the public as much as that of any woman who has recently won notoriety. As she is not a youthful woman or especially attractive in person, it is difficult to account for the influence she acquired over the men who she induced to lend her large sums on securities which proved worthless, thus bringing ruin to their reputations and fortunes.

Mrs. Chadwick is now in jail at Cleveland awaiting trial, having been indicted on numerous counts, among them being charges that she forged the name of the multimillionaire, Andrew Carnegie, to notes aggregating nearly a million dollars.

Mrs. Chadwick's career is shrouded in some mystery, but it is alleged that she was born in the early fifties in the province of Ontario, Canada; that her name was Elizabeth Bigley and that her father was a poor farmer with eight children. She was heard from in Cleveland as the bride of a Dr. W. S. Springsteen, who married her, thinking her to be an Irish heiress and capitalist. On discovering the falsity of these pretensions he deserted her. She afterward married C. L. Hoover, who on dying left her a wealthy widow with a son. Leaving Cleveland about 1888, she is said to have lived in Toledo under the name of Mrs. Devere and to have practiced as a clairvoyant. Mrs. Devere was tried for forgery and sentenced to a long term in the penitentiary, but was paroled after serving only part of the term. When the heroine of high finance was recently taken to the jail in Cleveland she was identified by the authorities there as the Devere woman. Mrs. Chadwick reappeared in Cleveland as a masseuse and met Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, a widower of wealth and social standing, whom she married, and through use of his standing in the community and the claim of a relationship to Andrew Carnegie she obtained such credit with financiers of Cleveland and elsewhere that she was able to borrow hundreds of thousands of dollars.

No Notice Served.

That no notice of the passage of the ordinance was served upon the plaintiff; but that notice of the ordinance was served on Jane Evans, but she did not build a sidewalk, nor did the council cause one to be constructed in front of her property.

That on December 17 following the council met, two-thirds only of the members being present, and passed an ordinance instructing the street commissioner to construct a sidewalk along said lot 159, and the costs and expenses of the same were to be assessed upon the lot; that the council met for the sole purpose of passing said ordinance, and no other business was transacted or sought to be transacted at said meeting; that the ordinance was of a permanent nature, and the same was read once only, and only at that meeting, and the rule requiring reading on three different days was not dispensed with, and could not have been dispensed with, as only two-thirds of the council were present at the meeting; that the weather was very inclement the remainder of the year, nevertheless, two days were found, viz., the two last days of the year, in which it was possible to construct a brick walk of some kind; that the days were short, the weather was cold, the ground was frozen, and the gravel on which the bricks were laid was frozen; that the work was therefore a frozen, that the work was a foot narrower than the ordinance provided and was six inches or more too high; that it is already giving way, and ought to be and must be replaced, and better laid when the ground thaws and settles, that the council at its last meeting, on January 4, and the last act of the council before it expired, passed an ordinance as a result, or attempting to assess, the cost of the sidewalk, amounting to $2,722 upon lot 159, and the mayor and council of the village threaten and are about to cause the same to be placed upon the tax duplicate as against the lot, making the same a lien, and charge thereon and requiring the county treasurer to collect the same; that defendant, Jacob M. Jones, mayor of Granville and defendant, John Case, Wm. Barrick, Edward S. Hulshizer, J. B. Jones, William C. Davies, Frank Robinson and William N. Fulton, treasurer of Licking county. The plaintiff claims that her husband with others, opposed the construction of a system of sewers in Granville last fall, and that the council in its desire to inflict a penalty on him for his opposition, placed upon him the burden of constructing a sidewalk. She asks for an injunction restraining the assessment for the payment of the sidewalk ordinance.

In substance the petition sets up that the plaintiff is and has been for 21 years the owner of a certain lot, No. 159, in Granville which lies on Cherry street; that there is no house on the lot, and but few houses south and west of it on that street; that some years ago a gravel walk was constructed on that street, which is but little traveled, and that the construction of a stone and a cement sidewalk would be, and is expensive, oppressive and unnecessary; that in the summer and fall of last year the council of said village had determined upon the construction of a system of sewers in the village; that the plaintiff's husband, with others, appeared before the council, and in the papers, opposed the scheme proposed as ill advised, which action was approved by the citizens. At the coming November election the three candidates who opposed said scheme being then elected by an overwhelming vote.

To Inflict Penalty.

Whereupon the members of said council determined to inflict a penalty upon plaintiff's husband for his opposition to their plans by placing upon him, before the new council should be sworn in, the burden of expense of constructing a sidewalk on the east side of the said lot, accordingly they met a few days after the election on November 15, 1904, and passed an ordinance or resolution requiring the construction of said sidewalk, and of another sidewalk in another part of the village, in front of the property of one, Jane Evans, but not naming the owner of said lot 159; that said ordinance was of a permanent nature, but the same was read but once, and the rule requiring reading on three different days was not dispensed with.

The ordinance provided that the walk should be constructed of cement, stone flagging, or of laid burned brick; that it was impossible to comply with the ordinance for the reason that the season for laying sidewalks was already past, and a cement walk could not be laid at all, and a stone or brick walk could not be well constructed at that season.

At the coming November election the three candidates who opposed said scheme being then elected by an overwhelming vote.

To Inflict Penalty.

Whereupon the members of said council determined to inflict a penalty upon plaintiff's husband for his opposition to their plans by placing upon him, before the new council should be sworn in, the burden of expense of constructing a sidewalk on the east side of the said lot, accordingly they met a few days after the election on November 15, 1904, and passed an ordinance or resolution requiring the construction of said sidewalk, and of another sidewalk in another part of the village, in front of the property of one, Jane Evans, but not naming the owner of said lot 159; that said ordinance was of a permanent nature, but the same was read but once, and the rule requiring reading on three different days was not dispensed with.

The ordinance provided that the walk should be constructed of cement, stone flagging, or of laid burned brick; that it was impossible to comply with the ordinance for the reason that the season for laying sidewalks was already past, and a cement walk could not be laid at all, and a stone or brick walk could not be well constructed at that season.

No Notice Served.

That no notice of the passage of the ordinance was served upon the plaintiff; but that notice of the ordinance was served on Jane Evans, but she did not build a sidewalk, nor did the council cause one to be constructed in front of her property.

That on December 17 following the council met, two-thirds only of the members being present, and passed an ordinance instructing the street commissioner to construct a sidewalk along said lot 159, and the costs and expenses of the same were to be assessed upon the lot; that the council met for the sole purpose of passing said ordinance, and no other business was transacted or sought to be transacted at said meeting; that the ordinance was of a permanent nature, and the same was read once only, and only at that meeting, and the rule requiring reading on three different days was not dispensed with, and could not have been dispensed with, as only two-thirds of the council were present at the meeting; that the weather was very inclement the remainder of the year, nevertheless, two days were found, viz., the two last days of the year, in which it was possible to construct a brick walk of some kind; that the days were short, the weather was cold, the ground was frozen, and the gravel on which the bricks were laid was frozen; that the work was therefore a frozen, that the work was a foot narrower than the ordinance provided and was six inches or more too high; that it is already giving way, and ought to be and must be replaced, and better laid when the ground thaws and settles, that the council at its last meeting, on January 4, and the last act of the council before it expired, passed an ordinance as a result, or attempting to assess, the cost of the sidewalk, amounting to $2,722 upon lot 159, and the mayor and council of the village threaten and are about to cause the same to be placed upon the tax duplicate as against the lot, making the same a lien, and charge thereon and requiring the county treasurer to collect the same; that defendant, Jacob M. Jones, mayor of Granville and defendant, John Case, Wm. Barrick, Edward S. Hulshizer, J. B. Jones, William C. Davies, Frank Robinson and William N. Fulton, treasurer of Licking county. The plaintiff claims that her husband with others, opposed the construction of a system of sewers in Granville last fall, and that the council in its desire to inflict a penalty on him for his opposition, placed upon him the burden of constructing a sidewalk. She asks for an injunction restraining the assessment for the payment of the sidewalk ordinance.

In substance the petition sets up that the plaintiff is and has been for 21 years the owner of a certain lot, No. 159, in Granville which lies on Cherry street; that there is no house on the lot, and but few houses south and west of it on that street; that some years ago a gravel walk was constructed on that street, which is but little traveled, and that the construction of a stone and a cement sidewalk would be, and is expensive, oppressive and unnecessary; that in the summer and fall of last year the council of said village had determined upon the construction of a system of sewers in the village; that the plaintiff's husband, with others, appeared before the council, and in the papers, opposed the scheme proposed as ill advised, which action was approved by the citizens. At the coming November election the three candidates who opposed said scheme being then elected by an overwhelming vote.

COMPANY

CAPITAL STOCK

OF NEWARK HEAT AND LIGHT CO. INCREASED

From $1000 to $200,000 of Which Half is to be Preferred Stock, the Remainder Common.

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—The Newark Heat and Light company filed a certificate with the Secretary of State today increasing its capital stock from $1000 to $200,000, of which $100,000 is to be preferred stock. The preferred stock may be redeemed at not less than par at any time the board of directors may see fit upon payment of the par value of it, plus 10 per cent and all dividends at 6 per cent per annum to the date of redemption. Such preferred stock is to have preference in the distribution of the assets to the extent that its par value and any unpaid accumulated dividends in the winding up or dissolution of the corporation.

The foregoing dispatch refers to the Heisey company which was incorporated last summer. Mr. Heisey has about 50,000 acres of gas and oil land in Licking and Knox counties. It is said that Mr. Heisey has arranged to dispose of a large part of his present output of gas to the Logan company.

DOCTOR IRVINE TALKS

Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—Rev. Dr. I. N. W. Irvine, the deposed Episcopal priest who has brought suit against Bishop Ethelbert Talbot of the diocese of central Pennsylvania, gave his reasons for so doing. He said: "I have brought civil action against Bishop Talbot because he has tried to hide his guilt behind ecclesiastical canonical technicalities. The Protestant Episcopal church has failed to vindicate me; has failed even to investigate my charges. I shall have public redress, and force Talbot to face his libelous statements about me in the open courts. Perhaps he will again endeavor to hush the scandal with legal technicalities. The bishop always defends himself in such manner. The case will be heard the first Monday in February. The suit hinges, however, upon libelous letters Talbot has written about me."

BRYANS VIEWS

Nebraskan Declares at Indianapolis That Democratic Party Needs No Reorganization.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 19.—William Jennings Bryan was the guest of Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national Democratic committee, in this city. "I can't see wherein the Democratic party needs any reorganization," said Mr. Bryan, answering the question as to whether he had discussed such a thing with Chairman Taggart and Mr. Kern. "I have said all along that the Democratic party can not be a conservative party. It must be radical, that is, radical if compared to what many easterners would make it."

DESERTED BRIDE

Whom He Married in Newark a Few Days Ago—Rumors of a Suicide.

Paul Morrison, a young man of Canton, O., and Miss Anna May Arrison, who gave her residence as Newark, were married by the Rev. L. S. Boyce on January 2, and immediately after the ceremony took a train for Tiffin, where he resided with his wife until one day this week when he sent her to a restaurant for dinner and deserted her.

Suicide has been suggested. The Arrison woman is unknown in Newark as far as can be learned. The wedding was a runaway match.

EXTRAORDINARY INVESTMENT

Sixteen Per Cent Secured by Mortgage

Messrs. Alva W. Wilcox and E. A. Bolter of this city, have secured an option on the land abutting the United States navy yard at Charleston, S. C., from the Chicora company of Norfolk, Va., with all of its improvements of sewer, water, trees and granolithic sidewalks. This is the most complete monopoly in real estate that could be arranged. This property is situated about five miles from Charleston, the street car runs through its entire length, and within five years nearly five thousand mechanics will be employed by the government, or as nearly as many as all the factories in the city of Newark combined. At the present time there is not a dwelling within five miles of the navy yard, except negro cottages. The property secured abuts on the navy yard four thousand four hundred feet, and the gate of the yard opened into it. The history of all navy yards has been that they created cities about them in a very few years, as can be ascertained by referring to the yards at Newport News and Puget Sound.

By these terms of their contract they have bound themselves to raise $50,000 for the purpose of erecting houses and making improvements. To do this they offer to the people of Newark an opportunity to realize a handsome profit on their money which may be subscribed in amounts of $100 or more, which need not be paid until April 1, 1905, although if they desire to make a subscription it should be done at once, as we anticipate that the amount will be rapidly subscribed and no more than that amount will be taken.

We can offer to subscribers a 16 per cent investment secured by mortgage on real estate with the additional added security that property mortgaged will be the first improved by building on the same with the money subscribed. We have made a personal investigation of this property and been all over it. Mr. Wilcox desires to meet a number of good mechanics of the different building trades of this city, who might be desirous of going south, as steady employment the year around is made possible.

Parties desiring further information on this matter may call at our office, No. 14 1-2 east side of square, where we have pictures of the property and the navy yard.

HANNAH ELIAS

Called to the Stage in Platt Suit. Woman Tells the Story of Past Life.

New York, Jan. 19.—Hannah Elias, the negress, whom aged John R. Platt is suing to compel her to return $685,000 which he claims she extorted from him during an acquaintance of 20 years, told the story of her life before Justice O'Gorman in the supreme court, where the suit is on trial. She insisted that every dollar that Platt gave her had been given voluntarily. How much money Platt gave her she could not say even approximately. Mr. Platt was very generous, even from the first, she said, but he was more so after the death of his wife in 1893. Patrick W. Dugan, an upholsterer, who did much work for Mrs. Elias, said that Platt made him a present of a $500 bill every Christmas for three years "because he had been good to Dolly" (Mrs. Elias).

FAMILY'S AFFLICTION

Three Sudden Deaths in the Past 24 Hours in One Family Residing in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Three sudden deaths within the past 24 hours have occurred in the family of Thomas Meehan, well known in commercial circles in Chicago. Word reached the family that James Meehan, the younger son, had died at Kankakee. A few hours afterward the mother, Mrs. E. Meehan, was taken ill with heart disease at a railway station here and died after being taken to Mercy hospital. Later a telegram was received that Thomas Meehan had died in Denver, where he went last week for a vacation. The survivors of the family are three sisters of Thomas Meehan. The news of his death reached the sisters as they were taking the remains of their mother and other brother to the family home.
